

Our Contributors

Robert Traer has taught at the Dominican University of California since 2001. From 1990 to 2000 he directed the International Association for Religious Freedom and represented that body at the United Nations. A graduate in both theology and law he is a retired Presbyterian minister and a member of the Colorado Bar who has written and lectured widely on ethics and human rights.

George Kimmich Beach is a retired Unitarian Universalist minister. He is widely recognized as a leading interpreter of the works of the social ethicist and theologian James Luther Adams (1901-1994). His publications include Transforming Liberalism: The Theology of James Luther Adams (Skinner House Books, 2004).

Scott McKenna is the minister of Mayfield Salisbury Parish (Edinburgh) of the Church of Scotland. He studied divinity at St Mary's College at the University of St Andrews and holds the degree of MTh from the University of Edinburgh where he is currently studying for an MPhil.

Dan C. West is a retired Presbyterian minister living in Atlanta who spent most of his career in college work. He has worked in a number of liberal arts colleges and was president successively of Lyon College and Carroll University over a period of twenty years. He holds degrees from Austin College, Union Presbyterian Seminary, and Vanderbilt and Harvard Universities.

Sandra Gilpin is a graduate in scholastic philosophy of Queen's University, Belfast. She is a member of the Non-Subscribing Presbyterian Church of Ireland and has worked as a teacher in the field of special education.

Cliff Reed is a Unitarian minister who serves the congregations of Ipswich and Framlingham. He is a former secretary of the International Council of Unitarians and Universalists.

Brendan Burke is a member of Cork Unitarian Church. He holds the degree of MA (Phil) from the Open University.

Moyra Donaldson was born in Newtownards and educated at Queen's University, Belfast. She has published four collections of her work: Snakeskin Stilettos (1998), Beneath the Ice (2001), The Horse's Nest (2006) and Miracle Fruit (2010).

Frank Walker is a retired Unitarian minister who most recently served as minister of Cambridge and Bury St Edmonds from 1976 to 1999.

Andrew M. Hill is a noted historian of Unitarianism and is a former secretary to the Unitarian Historical Society. He was minister to St Mark's Unitarian Church, Edinburgh from 1974 to 2007.

Peter Godfrey is Editor Emeritus of Faith and Freedom.