

Our Contributors

Sir Peter Froggatt is a former Vice-Chancellor and President of Queen's University, Belfast.

Barrie Needham was born and bred in England. He is emeritus professor of spatial planning at the Radboud University, Nijmegen, the Netherlands.

George Kimmich Beach is a retired Unitarian Universalist minister. He is widely recognized as a leading interpreter of the works of the social ethicist and theologian James Luther Adams (1901-1994). His publications include Transforming Liberalism: The Theology of James Luther Adams (Skinner House Books, 2004).

Cliff Reed is a Unitarian minister who recently retired from the congregations of Ipswich and Framlingham.

Grace Blindell is a member of Brighton Unitarians. She studied at the Institute in Culture and Creation Spirituality in California and has also lived in France, Malaya, Nigeria and the Gaza Strip as well as the UK. She is the author of What is Creation Centred Spirituality? (London 2001).

Frank Walker is a retired Unitarian minister who most recently served as minister of Cambridge and Bury St Edmonds from 1976 to 1999.

Martin Fitzpatrick is formerly a Senior Lecturer and Senior Research Fellow at Aberystwyth University. He is a founder with D.O. Thomas of the journal Enlightenment and Dissent and is at present co-editor of the journal with James Dybikowski. He is a brother of the late Rev. Austin Fitzpatrick.

Alison Steers is a ceramic artist in Belfast. She is a graduate of Queen's University, Belfast, in politics and social anthropology, and of the Metropolitan College, Belfast, in art.

Peter Godfrey is a retired Unitarian minister and Editor Emeritus of Faith and Freedom.