

Our Contributors

Rosemary Lloyd is a Unitarian Universalist minister who served the First Church in Boston (Massachusetts) 2004-13. She delivered the sermon "The Two Annes" on the occasion of Charter Day 2012, a celebration of the congregation's gathering in 1630. A graduate of Georgetown University and Harvard Divinity School, she lives in Lincoln, Massachusetts.

Yvonne Joan Craig is a member of St Anne's Church, Soho, London. Her latest book is Peacemaking for Churches (2000, London: SPCK).

Grace Blindell is a member of Brighton Unitarians. She studied at the Institute in Culture and Creation Spirituality in California and has also lived in France, Malaya, Nigeria and the Gaza Strip as well as the UK. She is the author of What is Creation Centred Spirituality? (London 2001).

Dan C. West is a retired Presbyterian minister living in Atlanta who spent most of his career in college work. He has worked in a number of liberal arts colleges and was president successively of Lyon College and Carroll University over a period of twenty years. He holds degrees from Austin College, Union Presbyterian Seminary, and Vanderbilt and Harvard Universities.

Donald A. Bailey after earning an Hons. BA from the University of Saskatchewan read Modern History at Oxford University and then earned a PhD from the University of Minnesota. Now retired, he taught Early Modern European History for thirty-six years at the University of Winnipeg, branching out to teach the History of Women over 2500 years and of Political Thought from Machiavelli to Wollstonecraft. His publications have touched on the France of Louis XIII, the cultural rights of French-Canadians and the Métis, aspects of the thinking of Locke and Rousseau, and Unitarian Universalist History and Theology.

David Howlett. After graduating with high honours in Classics from the University of Montana David Howlett studied English Language and Literature at Corpus Christi College, Oxford, and received a DPhil in Medieval Studies. After working at Oxford University Press as Assistant Editor of the Supplement to the Oxford English Dictionary he became Editor of the British Academy's Dictionary of Medieval Latin from British Sources, a Research Fellow of the Faculty of Classics in the University of Oxford, Consultant to the Royal Irish Academy's Dictionary of Medieval Latin from Celtic Sources, and a Member of the Comité Du Cange at the Institut de France responsible for the Novum Glossarium Mediae Latinitatis and the Archivum Latinitatis Medii Aevi. He has published much about a mode of thought and a tradition of structural composition in the Hebrew, Greek, and Latin Bible and its influence on the literatures, Celtic and Germanic and Romance, of the British Isles from Roman times to the modern period.

Martin Keiffer is an Anglican layman who holds the degree of DPhil from the University of Oxford. He works for a software company and lives in London.

Rosemary Arthur is a theologian with a PhD in Early Church History. She is particularly interested in spirituality, mysticism and heresy. She lives in Yorkshire.

Czeslaw Glogowski, has an MA in history and the sociology of literature from Warsaw University. He is a journalist and editor, interested in the history and development of Christian doctrines and theologies (particularly of Unitarianism and liberal, non-dogmatic theology). From 1997 to 2001 he was the publisher and co-editor of Wolna Myśl Religijna (Free Religious Thought) – the Polish Unitarian Magazine.