Sandra Gilpin (née Johnston) holds a degree in Scholastic Philosophy (Queen's University Belfast) and a post-graduate qualification in Special Education. She has worked as a teacher of children with hearing loss and moderate learning difficulties. Sandra lives in Comber where her husband is a successor of William Hugh Doherty c. 1810-1890. A sixth generation Non-Subscribing Presbyterian she has a particular interest in researching those connected with the denomination, publishing articles on figures such as Gawin Orr 1756-1830 (Church figure and genealogist), Robert Huddleston 1814-1887 (Ulster Scots Poet), Shipbuilders William James Pirrie 1847-1924 and his nephew Thomas Andrews 1873-1912 (of Harland & Wolff, Belfast).

Imran Usmani works as a part-time general practitioner in south London. He read Physiological Sciences and Medicine at Oxford. He also has an undergraduate degree in Mathematics and Physics from the Open University, and a PhD in Mathematics from Surrey University. He has studied the Torah, Gospel and Quran, and he believes they teach the same essential message. However, he feels that the religious traditions of Judaism, Christianity and Islam do not accurately reflect the teachings of their Scriptures.
